Mr. Harvey F. Brooks
Acting Principal

In your lifetime you will experience changes in society that at this point in time we cannot even imagine. Education will allow you to adapt more easily to the changes that lie ahead. For many in this class the job they will do twenty years from now has not yet been developed. Never for a moment believe that because you finished high school you have finished learning. Your challenge in life will be to live in the present but prepare for an ever-changing future. Take what you have learned here and continue to build upon it.

Harvey F. Brooks

Dr. Michael Ippolito Superintendent of Schools

TO THE CLASS OF 1994

Graduation from high school can be just one more milestone in the course of human events. It also can be a momentous occasion for joy, anticipation and high expectation. As a graduate, the power to use this event in a positive way is within your grasp.

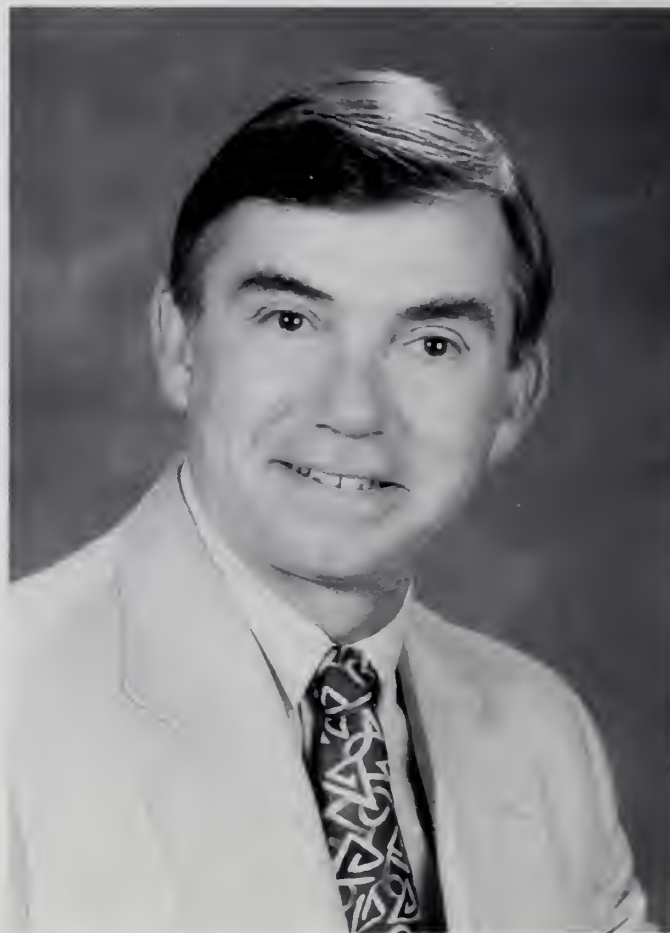

During the past four years, many opportunities existed to test the future. Previous school and life experiences were building blocks to what is still to come. As the moment arrives to receive the diploma which documents that passage, it is important to remember and be reminded that from this point forward the true measure of success will be . . . you!

Graduation will bring the preparation and training phase of your development to a partial conclusion as you now enter the world of competition. Competition for every aspiration and expectation. The hand holding of parents and teachers will give way to personal inspiration and perspiration. What you want of life, will come only through your own perseverance and hard work!

Therefore, as you leaf through this yearbook, let the memories be the driving force for the days to come. Make your graduation from Middleborough High School a giant step forward to a life of success, happiness and fulfilling rewards.

My best wishes and good thoughts go with each of you. The Class of 1994 will take its rightful place among the alumni of M.H.S.

"You can't teach a hungry student!"

I like the freedom of choosing the subjects I want to study. Therefore, the students can study what interests them.

We don't have to wear school uniforms in this school. I think we can have individuality by not having everyone dress the same.

This school is different from a Danish school. First of all, there are more rules here. I was surprised the first day when I figured out that you have to be in the cafeteria during lunch, that you can't go outside.

This school is rushed. You have a lesson, and then you have a three minute break, just enough to rush on to the next lesson. That was pretty strange because I am used to ten minute breaks.

But I like it here now that I have gotten used to it.

Middleboro is different, but I like Middleboro. School is different too. But I like school too. In school are good teachers. I like senior lounge, but I think Middleboro has too much homework. Tests are too often, but it's good, because for me, it isn't difficult. Only English and U.S. History make me some trouble.

CLASS OF 1994

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

- I, Ryan Ambrose, leave a smoothly paved road throughout the school system for my sister Desiree.
- I, John Amiro, leave all the nagging and discipline behind with you people at MHS.
- I, Anthony Andrade, leave the "brotherhood" to the most worthy, Mike D.
- I, Tanya Avellino, leave all my absent notes to Mrs. Russel because "absences are the story of my life."
- I, Kelley Bagdasarian, leave Sarah G. my defensive position along with the T-time power.
- I, Kimi Bartlett, leave my laziness.
- I, Lynette Bertrand, leave my three English's to whoever wants them.
- I, Kate Bonia, leave MHS hoping our class of '94 remembers all the fun times because it'll never be the same again.
- I, Michelle Brodeur, leave a box of Coffee Nips to RB and DA.
- I, Amy Brush, leave all my stupid jokes to Mr. McCarthy.
- I, Pamela Buck, leave Peter Shilonski my brain because he definitely needs it.
- I, Ron Burgess, just plain leave.
- I, Beth Cabana, leave all my good times to the class of 1995.
- I, John Carder, hope I never come to this town again.
- I, Eric Cardin, leave my condolences to any girl who went out with B.C.
- I, Jessica Rae Chartoff, leave my file cabinet-o-fun to Kiddo and Bud, and all others who are deemed worthy.
- I, Margaret Mary Chretien, leave my sick sense of humor to Mr. Battis.
- I, Kelly Clement, leave KS, AB, KB, LG, and TC all the memories of our times together at MHS.
- I, Dave Cogswell, leave MHS the gum that I stuck under all my desks.
- I, Sheryl Correa, leave all the "hard-to-deal-with" teachers to all the "cool little freshmen." HA, HA!!
- I, Rebecca Costa, leave my sister Alice the hope to graduate.
- I, Jonathan Cronk, leave the I.R.A. and the annual party after the soccer banquet in the capable hands of J.N., with the hope that he will carry on the tradition.
- I, Robert Curry, leave my vehement warning to all the guys, "Stay away from my sister!"
- I, Kaia DePaolo, leave my mild manners to Mr. J.
- I, Kevin Devine, leave Mr. Denise 0:01 on the clock.
- I, Joseph Dillon, leave my speed and quickness to my little brother.
- I, Wendy Dumas, leave my great attitude with my high school teachers.
- I, Elizabeth Eldredge, leave Jamie a life long supply of my bread with substance.
- I, Debra Ellard, leave all my hair products to my dear friends, Kerri and Stacey.
- I, Melissa Evans, leave all the memories.
- I, Jennifer Fahey, leave my lipstick to Jen Johnson.
- I, Amy Lynn Faria, leave all my athletic abilities to my favorite little brother, Joe.
- I, Melissa Ann Ferguson, leave Kristin Merrill a great senior year and my endless friendship.
- I, Christopher Fletcher, leave Tyrone without an opponent in basketball.
- I, Lisa Files, leave my music to Kim so she won't be stuck in the 80s forever.
- I, Kimberly-Ann Files, leave my "touch" lamp to my sister Lisa. OK, Mr. Denise?
- I, Tammy Foley, leave to my brother Billy my athletic abilities and good luck!
- I, Kimberly Fuller, leave my pen to Jolene Goodine.
- I, Darren Furlong, leave my Spanish book to Shaine Hill, and my colored pencils to Les X.
- I, Matthew Gerdin, leave my wrestling T-shirts to my sisters and Jay Waterman.
- I, Chad Gingras, leave half of my intelligence to the underclassmen, 'cause we all know I have enough for all of us!
- I, Kelly Gomes, leave Danny, my family, and Julie all my love.
- I, Angela Granfield, leave nothing because I'm materialistic and I want to be buried with my belongings.

I, Julie Harris, leave Middleboro, and Middleboro High School to anyone who would actually want them.

I, Shaine Hill, leave my class ring to my love, Kimberly-Ann Files.

I, Stacey Hockenberry, leave the shiny corridor floors to my sister on her first day of 9th grade.

I, Tina Holmes, leave Mr. D. the dream to have hair like mine.

I, Michael Hopkins, leave all my support and best wishes to all future football players at M.H.S., and all my sweaty gym clothes.

I, Kristine Hynes, leave that large wad of pink gum that has been in my locker for two years to whoever chewed it.

I, Jennifer Johnson, leave all my green apples to Lisa.

I, Edward Kearns, leave my big, blue, Malibu.

I, Melissa Kuczmiec, leave everything to my parents.

I, Michelle LaBelle, leave my collection of pine cones, sea shells, rocks, and feathers to Bobby Brodeur.

I, Kelly Lavelle, leave Jolene and Emily the memories of Brooks.

I, David Lincoln, leave my hair to Mr. Denise.

I, Megan Lomp, leave my cousin my luck, for her next three years at M.H.S.

I, Elizabeth Lovell, leave my insanity to all the iddy biddy freshmen.

I, D. J. Mackiewicz, leave my heart and soul to everybody, so that I'm remembered for who I was, not what I was.

I, Gregory Maher, leave my lousy $4.25 an hour job at Richs for someone else to pursue a career in the toy department.

I, Jason Martin, leave the saying "some people look at things and ask why? I dream of things and ask why not."

I, Robert Mason, leave my attitude to Wibba, Greg, and Jeff, use it wisely. I'll miss you guys!

I, Jared Maxwell, leave my great sense of humor to Mrs. Buck.

I, Shannon McMue, leave the freshman's "Jaime," this school.

I, Jodie McDonald, leave Sandra Vaczy and Alison Ramsay all my good advice.

I, Lisa McGuire, leave Martina's little brother Billy, my ability to ride a bike.

I, Michael Medas, leave my immaturity, and sick sense of humor to Kevin Small.

I, Tara Medas, leave school hoping to see everyone in the Class of '94 again.

I, Tinnelle Montrond, leave Katie my car so she can go down Chestnut Street whenever she wants.

I, Daniel Morris, leave behind a well blazed path that I hope none will follow.

I, Tammy Murphy, leave my diploma to Debbie Kloster.

I, Daniel Nadeau, leave #27 to be hung from the gymnasium rafters.

I, Kevin Nickerson, leave my English class with Mr. Simmons to anyone who needs to catch up on some sleep.

I, Dawn Norway, leave Tommy with three more years of high school!

I, Sarah Norway, leave my skating and pick-up ability to Kevin.

I, Adam Nunes, leave the legacy of the Lowriders to anyone who can handle it!

I, Dianne Oshaughnessy, leave to my sister the cleaning of our room.

I, Shane Ostiguy, leave my pain and aggravation built up from school to all the underclassmen.

I, Sarah Park, leave Mrs. Murohy and Miss O'Brien with my sincere thanks for helping me through a very hard time!

I, Jason Patterson, leave K.S. everything I own, because someday what's mine will be hers.

I, Fred Pepin, leave my hard effort to graduate with the class of "1994."

I, Kimberly Pratt, leave good luck to all you underclassmen.

I, Kristin-Marie Prescott, leave to this building the memories of the good and bad times.

I, Emily Provencher, leave all the little freshmen (K.M.) to A.L. because no one else wants them.

I, Alison Ramsay, leave Jodie and Emily all of my puffy painted unmentionables and Amy all of the buttons of memories.

I, Shannon Rego, leave my car and my horse, Jake, to Kristin Merrill.

I, Stephen Reynolds, leave Middleboro to all the dumb saps that stay here.

I, Diane Sanchez, leave to the children of the future — Love everyone as God loves you!

I, Kevin Small, leave my maturity and intelligence to M.M.

I, Jamie Stevens, leave Beth E. my polka-dotted bag with a mirror, Q-tip, nail file, my pictures, brush, Hoggie, and Algebra II homework in it.

I, Kimberly Stevens, leave my love to Tully, my family, and Russ Stuchlak.

I, Charles Daniel Still, leave my job at Dewey's to T. J. Lavin.

I, Shiela Tarr, leave my morning attitude to my sister so she can keep mom busy.

I, Russell Tetreault, leave a 1993 football banner to the gym.

I, Mary Tinsley, leave the memories of the "semi-formal at the tavern" to (MT, JM, AF, SR, NH, LB, BC, JS).

I, Cynthia Upham, leave a lifetime of sugar to the Breakfast Club to keep them going during all the late nights on the town.

I, Robert Washburn, leave to Mr. Brooks and Mr. Berry all the suspension slips I ever received.

I, Jason Waterman, leave my '85 Chevy Camaro Berlinetta with T-tops and a 350 engine that has a four barrel carb to Matt Gerdin.

I, Michael Weaver, leave my boyz on the football team and all others. And I just want to say — stay smooth. BRAA

I, Jennifer White, leave my brain to JF!

I, Kerri Wood, leave Mrs. Hegarty my attitude.

I, Junko Yoshikawa, leave the United States with sadness to return to my home in Japan.

Thanks for being
"You"
Love, Mom and Dad

Josh, As you journey on your road through life, never lose sight of your goals, however difficult they may be to attain. Whether or not you succeed, to try makes the difference between a loser and an achiever. Mom and Dad.

Congratulations, Mimi!

JEREMY:

I've watched you grow into a fine young man.

Thru your success and your struggles . . .

Thru your laughter and your tears . . .

Thru your pain and your healing . . .

Thru your love and compassion,

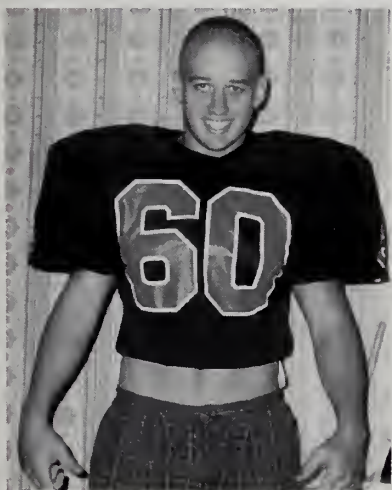

You stood so strong when I needed you.

I hope I've stood strong when you've needed me.

My dearest son, I love you. George and I wish you only the best life has to offer. Strive to live life to the fullest. Believe in yourself, for the goodness that is within us, is stronger than all temptations that surround us.

Good luck #60 . . . from your Biggest Fans . . .

Love and Luck . . . Mom & George

"A TRIBUTE . . .

1972

We'll MISS
You!

1994

Coach Frank Littlefield

"His skills in teaching as a coach have helped us become more prolific players, and lessons learned will not be forgotten."

"He also will be remembered as . . . most importantly our friend."

"We as players had hoped to make his last season a successful one, but unfortunately reality set in, and as it stands we sit at the proverbial end of the bench. Although we are not proud of our record, we have always been proud to have him as our coach."

From the 1994 Basketball Team

Frank Littlefield came to Middleboro High School in 1972. Since then he has been a gym and health teacher, basketball coach, track and field coach, cross country coach, and someone you could always count on for a smile or a story about Maine. Mr. Littlefield is retiring this year. He was honored at the last home basketball game for his years of service to the school. The Timaron staff dedicates this year's sports section to him and wishes him a happy retirement.

RUN

A small, but determined squad upheld the Sachem spirit during their meets this past fall. Leading the squad was Junior captain Ben Pickering, whose 15:00 finish for MHS on the 2.8 mile course set a new school record, breaking the 15:07 record he had set the previous weekend. Good work on your effort and determination, and good luck next year!

TOUCHDOWN!

This was truly a great season for the Sachems. With the help of the new coach, Dennis Pierozzi, the team had its best record in years. Coach Pierozzi also brought new spirit to the Middleboro Club, and we really felt Sachem Pride. WE ARE NUMBER ONE!

KICK!!

Due to circumstances beyond our control we didn't have as big of a team as we needed. But those players we had, had the heart we needed.

SHOOT

The girls soccer team ended its season setting numerous school records, including: most wins in a season (with a record of 8-8-2), most shut-outs, and most goals scored. There was also the biggest upset in girls soccer history when the team beat top seated Marshfield 2 to 1. The team was led offensively by senior Melissa Ferguson, who was the high scorer with 8 goals and 2 assists. The defense was led by the senior unit of Sandra Vaczy, Kelley Bagdasarian, Kate Sparrow, and Shannon Rego. Seniors at midfield were Jodie McDonald and Theresa Coyle.

The Captains wish to congratulate the team for an exciting season and wish all the underclassmen the best of luck in the future.

SPLASH

The girls swim team had a good season this year. Their total record was 6-4, with a league record of 4-2. Considering their size and the number of new swimmers, they did very well. League All-Stars this year were Nicole Semas, Sandra Melloul, and Stacie Colarusso.

Seniors Stacie and Jessica would like to wish the team good luck in the future. They'll miss you.

Imagine charging down a field, running after the ball, separating the other team from that ball with your field hockey stick. That's what the Middleboro Field Hockey team did this season as they scored against league teams. Even when they didn't score enough for a win, the heart and enthusiasm for the game was there. Led by Varsity captains Julie Harris and Sheila Tarr and JV captains, Alicia Cameron and Diana Ayube, the teams showed the dedication and team spirit needed to be winners. Congratulations on your good work!

SPLASH

A small, but determined team of nine juniors, sophomores, freshmen and "OO," our exchange student from Thailand, swam their way through a good season. They placed 5th in the Pilgrim Conference and a few guys on the team made it to Sectionals. In individual events the team was led by Kevin Boyle in diving, Jason Cheromcha in the breast stroke, Chris Kelly in freestyle and butterfly, and Joe Matthews in the backstroke. The team was cheered on by co-captains Chris Hilton and Chris Kelly.

SWISH

With an unusual schedule in which the varsity team seldom played on the home court on a Friday, the Sachems hoopsters led by captain, Eric Cardin, mounted a strong effort this year. Unfortunately despite their efforts, they ended the season with no wins this year. In a first, members of the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams played a benefit game for Muscular Dystrophy, sponsored by DECA. This was not your normal game — they played in wheelchairs against the MDA team.

WOOSH

The Lady Sachems played hard this season led by triple co-captains, Shannon Rego, Kelly Bagdasarian and Kate Sparrow. They ended the season with a 9-8 record. The real heartbreaker was losing the last game by one point which eliminated them from the district tournament. Junior Ebonie Harrison was selected for the Atlantic Coast All Stars and Senior, Shannon Rego was given an honorable mention.

JUNIOR VARSITY

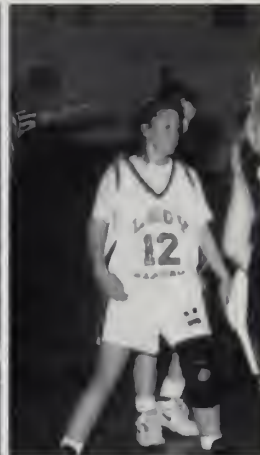

The Junior Varsity Squad's picture should go here but due to technical difficulties, their photo failed to develop in time. The squad coached by Donna Lieb ended their season with a 5-12 record. It was a young team composed of freshmen Erin McKenna, Erin Houlihan, Christianna Norvish, Tracey Gamache, Anna Mateus, Keona Booker, and Crystal Molina who were Captained by Junior, Julie Keane and Sophomores, Leanne Tarkanian and Julie Prisco.

GO! FIGHT! WIN!

This was a good year for the basketball cheerleaders. The squad had a lot of seniors, and many good climbers, which is the making for a great team. For the first time in five years the squad successfully competed in a competition. All in all it was a great year!

The wrestling team worked hard this year and for the first time in Middleboro athletic history the team included a young lady, Junior, Melanie Rogers. At the end of the season 6 of the team placed in the South Sectional tournament with three Sachems earning berths in the State Championships — Matt Gerdin, Josh White and Adam Carbone. Attending the Championships in Wilmington were alternates James Treganowan, Dustin Burroughs and Jason Richards.

CHEER

The Middleboro High School cheerleaders captured the spirit of the Sachems. Led by co-captains Jennifer Campanini and Jennifer Lemmo, the squad helped motivate the football team and the fans in what was a great season. They would like to thank Coach Pierozzi for making them feel like they were part of the team. This spring the cheerleaders will be going into competition. Good Luck!
